

RJ Reynolds High School

Connor Andrus #20 (Sophomore)

Position: Catcher/Infield

Height 5'10"
Weight 180

Bats R
Throws R

DOB: 4/14/93
60 yd time:

Varsity Stats
Year	BA	OB%	Hits	RBI	BB	SB
2008	.353	.458	24	15	12	3

Connor is a 2nd year starter for the Demons in 2009 and brings with him the title of "Coach Welch's only freshman to make All-Conference" (14 years). This means even as a sophomore, Connor will be expected to lead, at the plate, handling the Demon pitching staff, and controlling the opponents' running game with his quick feet and D1 arm.

Connor enjoys wakeboarding and also plays basketball for RJ Reynolds. His favorite Major League player is Pudge Rodriguez. Connor plans on attending college after graduation from RJR. He received the Rookie of the Year award last year and also the Big Bat award. His best high school baseball memory was beating W Forsyth in 2008.

Connor's parents are Richard and Susie Andrus.
He has two brothers, Ty and Whit.