Davis Masich, a 2 year letterman for the Demons, is a very quick-handed infielder with the skill to also play outfield. Great bat speed and last year's experience will put him in the mix for competing for a starting position every day. Masich also possesses 3 very good pitches and will be asked to take the "bump" throughout the season.

Davis has been playing baseball for 13 years and church basketball and Eagle Scouts. He is involved in the Key Club, Spanish Club and DECA at RJR. His favorite Major League team is the Atlanta Braves. He plans on attending college after graduating from RJ Reynolds.

Davis's parents are Kent and Kim Masich.
 Davis has one brother, Tom.
